Brief Description:

Cypress Place is a Street Outreach Program that focuses on finding Runaway, Homeless, Potentially Runaway or Homeless, Trafficked or Potentially Trafficked Youth in St. Clair County. Travelling street outreach teams provide food, water, clothing, hygiene, and emergency supplies to those in need as well as referrals to emergency shelters, housing assistance programs, and other community resources as needed. The program provides crisis intervention, casemanagement, counseling, educational support, and transportation, as well as access to showers, laundry, computers, and meals.
