Brief Description:

Wings of the Harbor is a Transitional Living Program that provides shelter for Homeless or Potentially Homeless youth between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one, including those youth who are aging out of Foster Care. The program provides temporary housing, basic needs, life skills, and supportive services for up to 18 months. Services include counseling, casemanagement, crisis intervention, independent living skill development, building positive social relationships, and assistance with money management, employment, education, and obtaining housing, as well as after care and follow up services after the youth has obtained their own housing.
