The Harbor Street Outreach Program focuses on finding Runaway, Homeless, Potentially Runaway or Homeless, Trafficked or Potentially Trafficked Youth in St. Clair County. Traveling street outreach teams provide food, water, clothing, hygiene, and emergency supplies to those in need as well as referrals to emergency shelters, housing assistance programs, and other community resources needed. The program provides crisis intervention, case management, counseling, educational support, and transportation, as well as access to showers, laundry, computers, and meals. Pop-up events are scheduled throughout St. Clair County and advertised on The Harbor Street Outreach Program Facebook page.
